
Percentages are fΔ = (edited + new) / models in the new release. The number under each bar is families removed, which are not in that denominator.